

Nearly two decades with EPAT: a changing role with a changing journal in a changing world

Susanne Brighouse
Managing Editor Educational Philosophy and Theory (EPAT)

Nearly 20 years involvement with EPAT

- Growth: From three to fourteen issues per year
- 1995 first involvement in Philosophy of Education
- 2003 Conference: Introduction to scholars of Philosophy of Education
- Early 2000's first contact with EPAT

The Role of Managing Editor

- 2002 online submissions by email using Access
- 2006 move to ManuscriptCentral (MC)
- 2006 to 2021 big increase in all parameters of the journal
- Growth of responsibility and hours worked by Managing Editor

Growth in submissions From 2003

Ongoing increase in issues published yearly

Number of issues per Volume

Geographical homes of authors

In the last twelve months we have had submissions from nearly 60 countries

Country	Number of Manuscripts	Percentage
China	117	21.6 %
United States	61	11.3 %
Australia	47	8.7 %
UK	34	6.3 %
New Zealand	24	4.4 %

Changing topics of Interest

- Role of women
- Climate change
- Big data
- COVID-19

Benefits to me from my years with EPAT

- My learning
- My pen pals
- The income
- The pleasure of meeting you all at conferences

Farewell and thank you all